Dear Parents or Carers

3rd February 2020

To celebrate World Book Day on Thursday 5th of March children and staff are invited come to school in comfy loungewear / pyjamas – the perfect outfit to cosy up and read a book in! We would like to encourage children to wear pyjamas rather than dress up – maybe they could choose a new book instead of a costume. Children can come to school dressed as a book character but if they choose to do this, please make sure the outfit is suitable for the weather conditions and that they have suitable shoes and a coat for playtime and lunchtime.

There will be a range of fun reading activities planned throughout the day that we are sure the children will love. Throughout the term, children are always encouraged to bring in a book from home if they wish to read it during our DEAR time. World Book Day is the ideal day to do this too so if your child wishes to bring an additional one in for the day, they are more than welcome to.

As in previous years, the children will also receive a £1 book token which can be exchanged in participating bookshops. You can view a range of £1 books available by visiting the World Book Day website <http://www.worldbookday.com/>

Yours faithfully,

Mrs Lysa Upham
